

Road Closure

Due to essential works as part of the new Jo Cox More in Common Centre development, there will be no access in front of Edith Key and Researcher Hub from Monday 13th June until Sunday 26th June. The pedestrian route behind these buildings is available between 6am and 8pm and the Woodland walk is open. The accessibility route during this period for staff and students is via the Barbara Hepworth building

The diagram below highlights alternative routes and access points.
