

Mid Degree - Employability Timeline

September / October

Be proactive

Explore your career options to help with your placement search

Create your second year action plan

Have you seen our career planning booklet? Pick up your copy today

Apply for placements

Book an appointment if you need advice

November

Fill in your skills gaps with work experience

Volunteering, extra-curricular activities or positions of responsibility, for example a course rep or student ambassador.

Get networking online and face to face

Set up a LinkedIn account and keep it up to date. Follow employers of interest to build commercial awareness.

Prepare for the placement recruitment process

Practise online psychometric tests

December

Prepare for the placement recruitment process

Perfect your interview skills

Keep evidence of your skills and experience

This is essential for future applications and interviews

January

Follow us on social media

We post various opportunities for current students

Review your action plan now

Have you met your goals? If not book an appointment for advice

February

Start applying for summer internships

Apply for summer work

March

Attend placement fairs

Keep up to date with fairs and events nearby

April

Apply for the Huddersfield Undergraduate Programme

Explore graduate career options now

May/June

Practise online tests to be ready for next year's graduate applications

Use the Careers Service, make sure you have some experience before final year