“Quakerism is a way of life rather than a set of beliefs. We meet together for worship in local meetings which are inclusive and open to all. Our sense of community does not depend on professing identical beliefs, but from worshipping, sharing and working together. The Quaker way has its roots in Christianity and finds inspiration in the Bible and the life and teachings of Jesus. Quakers also find meaning and value in the teaching of other faiths; we acknowledge that ours is not the only way.”
